Playing with Determination Team's effort exceeds record

In a rebuilding year, the Wildcat basketball team practiced with dedication and improved their skills as the season progressed. The squad made up of only one senior, two juniors and the remainder sophomores had to expect rough going as they faced more seasoned teams. This did not deter their effort to be their best. Although, on paper, the season looks dismal, accomplishments were gained, mainly in the form of experience. As the team looks forward to next year, they and their fans know an improved version of the same group will take to the court next fall.

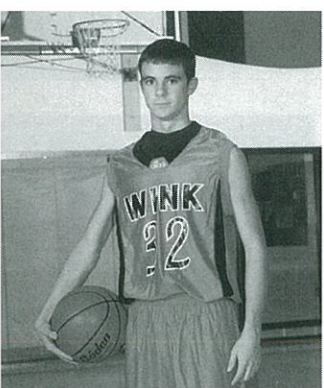

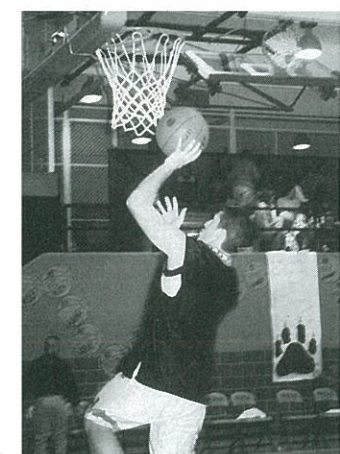

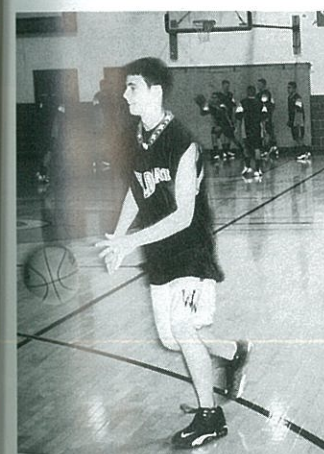

High point scorer of the year, Zach Hanna, uses his speed as an advantage to rush downcourt on a fast break.
