

09/11/01
Let us never forget

The Wink student body participates in Pledge Across America Day called for by President George W. Bush. Students all over the nation recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America at a predetermined time.

dealing with terror

DAVID GILBREATH

The events of September 11 changed the way I picture life. I'm a little more patriotic, and I spend more time watching the news.

DESSIE YORK

Now I appreciate the things I have more. I also cherish the time I spend with my brother because I'm terrified the U.S. will resume the draft.

BRANDON COTTON

It's opened my eyes and taught me to value my life on Earth because God can take us home anytime He pleases.

KELI GUNN

I cry everytime I hear the National Anthem, and I have a deeper respect for 'Americans.' For me, the flag stands for freedom more than ever before.

COLBY TAYLOR

September 11, made me think that I may have to leave my country, family and friends to fight some guy with a goofy looking beard.

ASHLEE CANON

I realize all that I have to lose. I also see why we should be proud to have a country with diverse culture. I better understand the importance of the American flag.

