

Student Council president Kelli Benham prepares to make morning announcements. Kelli's excellent leadership abilities earned her a position as a Junior Counselor for the 2002 Texas Association of Student Council Summer Leadership Camp at Angelo State University.

During the year the Dash committee, in an effort to promote a safe school environment, urged the student body to pledge not to bring guns to school. Member Ashlee Canon arranges pledges on a poster saying NO GUNS.

2002 Student Council

Committees earn 'outstanding' ratings to earn prestigious Sweepstakes Award at State Convention held in Arlington

2001-2002 Student Council: back to front (l-r)- N. Roundtree, C. Creager, B. Mcguire, J. Quiroz, S. Tankersley, V. Walker, K. Kerley, C. Rushing, E. Titsworth, J. Barrantey, R. Shackelford, J. Youngblood, S. Hernandez, S. Jones, W. Abila, A. Venegas, A. Sellers, A. Taylor, Alexys Dodd, N. Simpson, J. Garner, S. Henderson, V. Leatherwood, R. Bingham, C. Calaway, R. Thomas, Ashley Dodd, N. Bazzrea, Z. Croker, R. Ancira, K. Carroll, A. Canon, J. Adams, C. Redwine, D. Thomas, D. York and K. Benham

2001-2002 Student Council Officers
President: Kelli Benham
Vice President: Dessie York
Recording Secretary: Dallas Thomas
Corresponding Secretary: Courtney Redwine
Treasurer: Jennifer Adams

S. M. I. L. E. Smiling Makes Individuals Lively and Enthusiastic

Treasurer Jennifer Adams ties yellow ribbons on car antennas as a symbol of hope after the 9-11-01 tragedies.

Sophomore Dallas Thomas decorates for the Student Council sponsored Valentines Day Dance which council member Robyn Thomas enjoys with her date Austin Robertson.

In an effort to promote Halloween safety, council members Vena Leatherwood, Rhonda Bingham and Sara Henderson give tips on safe trick-or-treating to elementary students.

Cory Calaway works to find the perfect place to hang decorations for the Valentines Day Dance.