

Senior Ella Fernandes is joined by her parents, Leta Everett and Will Fernandes, along with volleyball coaches Paula Kay Stewart, Nikki Murden, Danna Flat and Rodger Martin, as she signs a letter of intent to play volleyball for Tarleton State University.

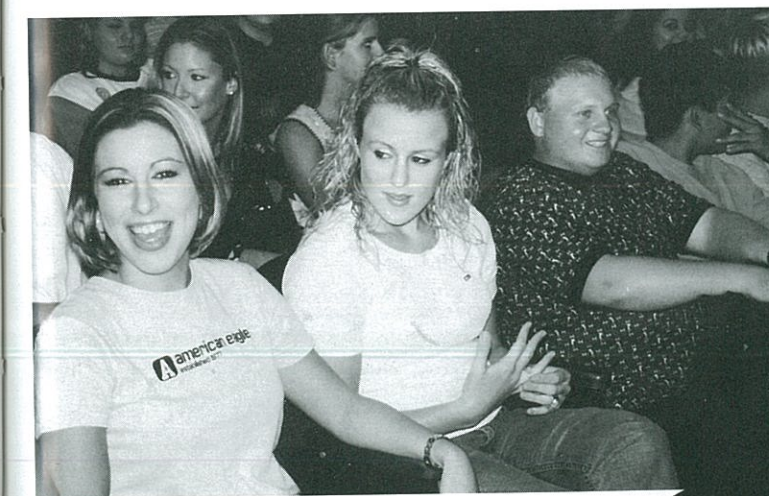

Courtney Redwine, second from left, earned a Division I rating in UIL vocal competition and earned the right to compete at the state contest during the summer. Also competing at the district level were Chelsea Fields, Amanda Holcomb and Dana Drinkard.

Senior Clay Haws and pre-kindergarten student Shae Youngblood seem to agree that W.L.I.S.D. is a fun place for Wildcats of all ages. Clay will be attending Texas Tech University in the fall, while Shae will be in kindergarten keeping Wildcat traditions alive and well.

Support and loyalty to troops fighting in Operation Iraqi Freedom echoed throughout the spring semester. Mrs. Kathy Lovell (left)-whose son, Brian (Class of '95) was in the war, and Mrs. Kay Thomas (right) decorated a door featuring pictures of Wink alumni engaged in the war effort. Pictured with the ladies are Chelsea Fields, Celsi Campbell and Doro Mendoza, each of whom had a sibling in the military.

Seniors Brelee Drake, Jodi Graham and Cory Calaway have plenty of school spirit. Brelee will take her spirit and cheerleading talent to Midland College in the fall.

*Closing,
Ads, Personals*

