Roundball Flare

Although the 2002-03 season didn't end victoriously, the Lady Cats played with the flare of champions. The season was not without its highpoints, and the team developed and maintained a camaraderie that helped them through some heartbreaking defeats.

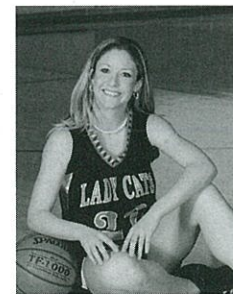

The season brought to a close the basketball careers of eight seniors who had played together since their days as Little Dribblers. Their dedication to the Lady Cat athletic program will be long be appreciated by their fans.
