

Sophomore Andy Rice entertains Ms. Betty Dodd's speech class with his accomplished guitar playing.

Senior Raudel Villalpando gets ready for his portrayal of Santa Clause in his theater arts class's production of Christmas in July.

Junior Gizmo Ruiz explains the ballot for the mock gubernatorial election to senior Dessie York. The election was sponsored by Ms. Betty Drake's economics class.

Freshman Rosana Polanco passes out candy to pre-K students, including Kristin Salazar, Tina Tacy, Kenneth Felts and Tera Gonzales, during the Halloween spook parade.

Keepin' the fire alive

Participation intensifies enthusiasm

*Forward march!
Forward march!
The Wildcat band
makes its entrance
onto the field
for a performance
given for the student body on the day before the UIL Regional Marching Band Contest.*

Confused senior sisters, Jodi and Lindsay Graham, try to figure out how to load film into a camera for a journalism assignment without having to ask Mrs. Cheryl Blair for assistance yet again.

Senior Alex Navarro uses a bit of free time to scan the eagerly awaited 2002 Wildcat.

