Sophomore Amanda Golden stares incredulously as junior Daniel Gray devours crab legs at Joe's Crab Shack in Lubbock. Amanda and Daniel each qualified for regional in journalism, and Daniel also competed in the regional science contest.

C-X Debaters, Spelling Team Represent WHS at State UIL Meets

The 2003 school year marked the eighth consecutive year that Wink spellers have advanced to the State UIL Academic Meet. This year's team made up Ashley and Alexys Dodd, Vena Leatherwood and Dessie York enjoy a brief stop at Lake Buchanan on their way to Austin. The team placed third at state.

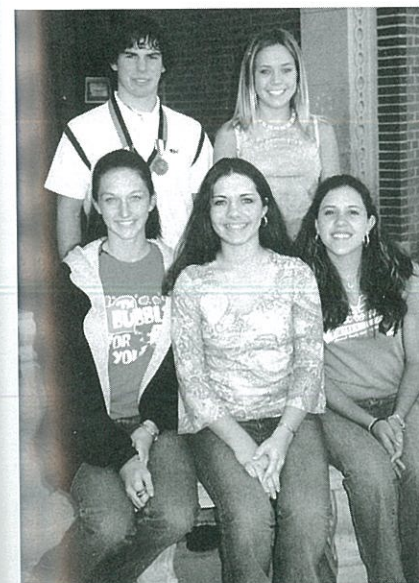

The C-X Debate teams of Kelli Benham and Courtney Redwine and Kendra Casteel and Rhonda Bingham advanced to the State C-X Debate Meet in March. This made school history because this is the first time Wink has qualified two debate teams for state. Benham and Redwine brought home bronze medals. The debaters are pictured with their coach, Mrs. Stephanie Tankersley.
