A perennial favorite in Mrs. Vonda Warren's seventh grade life management skills class is the flour baby project. First semester students pose with their babies: back-Erin Whitmire, Bristen Creech, Kelsey Wolf, Kristen Boggess and Kanda Hildebrand; middle - Dalton Gray, Larry Burrows and Jake Golden; front- Lyndsey Wolf, Robbie Sellers and Kate Giesick.

Eighth grader Kendra Kerley plays the xylophone as part of the percussion section's featured segment of the band's halftime performance.

Dimas Quiroz, in his Hawaiian Day hat, and fellow eighth grader Coty Carroll have fun in science class.
