Little things make up a BIG year

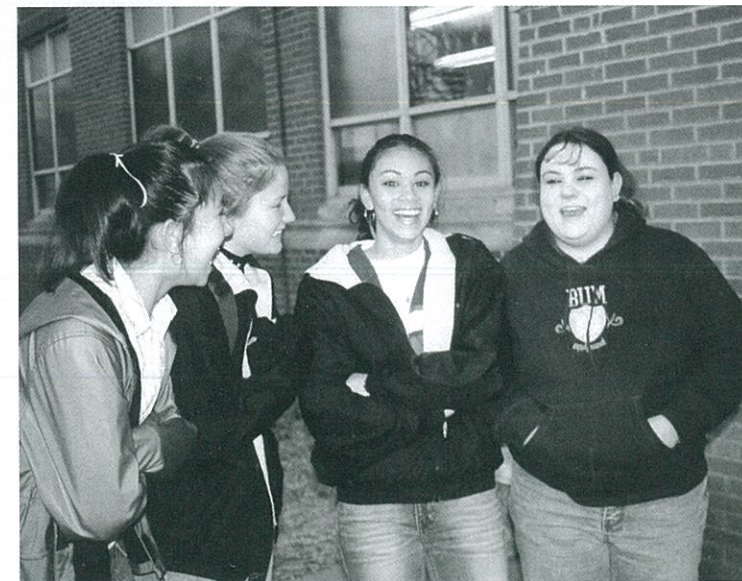

Sophomore Clay Fernandes makes his presence known during the spirit competition at a Friday afternoon pep rally.

Senior David Miller pays close attention to the lesson being taught in Coach Wendy McKinney's American history class.

As part of his VICA project, senior Brandon Wolfe works on taping off the cab of Mr. McKay's truck.

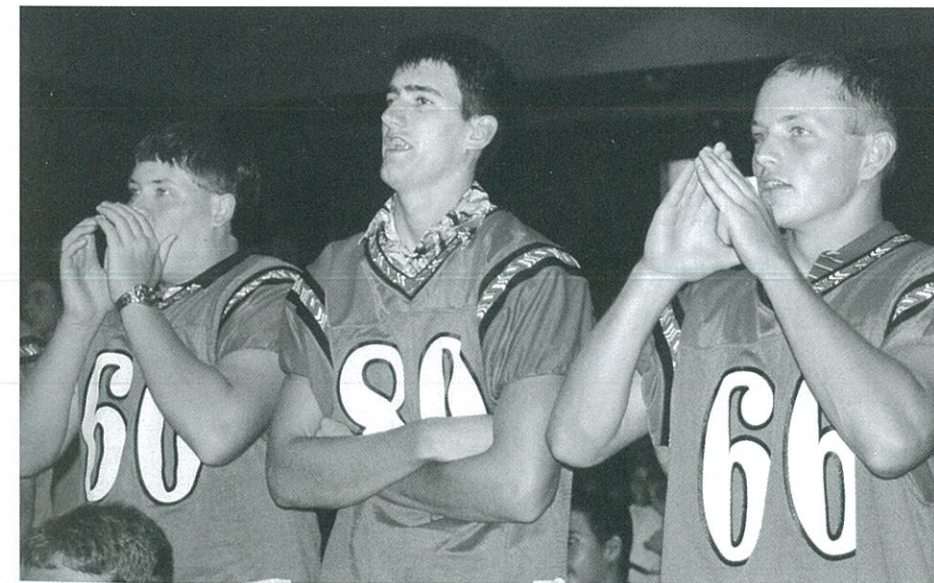

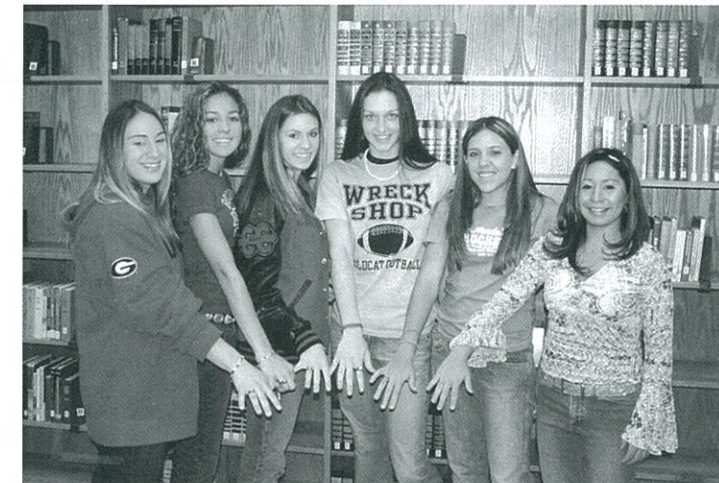

While waiting for the fourth period bell after a Monday morning assembly, Celia Chavez, Kendra Kerley, Whitney Abila and Donna Turpin enjoy a laugh.

As part of a theater arts class skit, senior Gizmo Ruiz reprises his role as Principal Daniel R. Carrillo. Gizmo's portrayal of Mr. Carrillo was an act eagerly awaited by pep rally and assembly audiences.

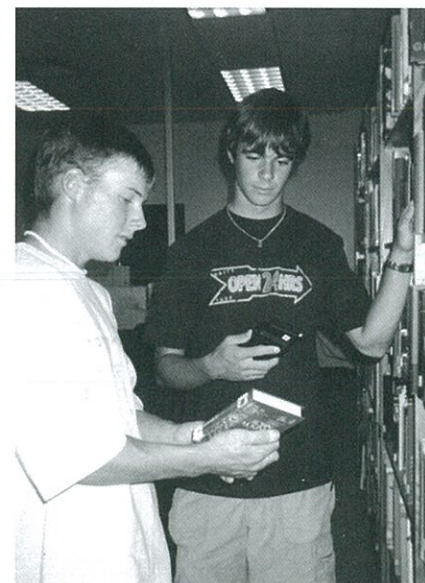

During Red Ribbon Week, senior Isabel Mendez looks anything but scary in her Scare Away Drugs costume.

Class ring delivery day is always long awaited for juniors class members. Catrina Rich, Kayla Ward, Lacy Shackelford, Amanda Golden, Jennifer Garcia and Jacque Carrasco are all smiles as they display their new jewelry.

Juniors Nelson Simpson, John Paul Jones and Jeremy Harrison show team unity and spirit as they help chant for another victory.

Seniors Colby Worden and Austin Robertson lend a helping hand in the library.
