Fun in the Sun Seniors pose for a group photo at Fiesta Texas while on the senior trip.

I wanta be an Indian Coach Max McGehee shows William Wilkinson where to sign his letter of intent to play football for McMurry University, as proud parents, Melody and Bill Wilkinson, look on.

Perfect Fit Jennifer Garcia tries on her cap and gown moments after Josten's representatives place the outfit in her hands.

Stand and Cheer Amanda Golden will work during the summer at cheerleading camps instructing mascots from around the state, while, next fall, Jacque Carrasco will continue her cheerleading for the Midland College Chaparrals.

Movin' On Gary Wolf, Cheryl Baker and James Barfield leave WHS after the 2004-05 school year. The three have a combined total of 49 years teaching at Wink High School. Mr. Wolf has taught science and math, Mr. Barfield has taught math, and Mrs. Baker, who began her career at Wink as a volleyball coach, has taught Spanish and English classes. The trio, who always strived to instill the tradition of academic excellence in their students, will be greatly missed.

Let's Debate State qualifying C-X debaters, Vanessa Walker and Justin Cole, willingly give up two weeks of summer vacation to attend Debate Camp held on the campus of West Texas A&M University in Canyon.

Team Ropers Clay Fernandes and Dustin Erskine qualify for the 2005 Texas High School Rodeo Association's state rodeo.
