

Randi Shackelford marks her ball just before teeing off at the Wink Invitational.

Senior Jennifer Garcia takes some practice swings before play began at the Wink Invitational Tournament held at the Winkler County Golf Course.

2005 District 8 Champions: back - Jennifer Garcia, Coach Charles Stodghill, Randi Shackelford and Whitney Abila; front - Jessica Youngblood, Kira Willhelm and Alexys Dodd

District Champs!

Lady Cats defeat McCamey in play-off

At the district golf tournament held in Fort Stockton, the Lady Cats found themselves down to McCamey by 3 strokes after the first round of play. This didn't deter the young team as they made up ground and ended tied with the Lady Badgers at the end of day two. In a sudden death play-off the Lady Cats forged ahead and won the district championship.

The regional tournament, held at the Elm Grove Golf Course in Lubbock brought on strong competition from the panhandle. Even though the Wink team didn't advance to state, they shot their lowest round of the season (397) and finished in fourth place in a field sixteen teams.

Junior Derek Tarr follows through with a chip shot to the practice green at the Winkler County Golf Course.

Clay Fernandes gets his bag ready for a day of tough competition.

2005 Golf Teams: back - Derek Tarr, Jake Golden, Kevin McGhee, Dalton Gray, Larry Burrows, Clay Fernandes, Jacob Youngblood, Chris Lujan, Tyler Thomas and Coach Charles Stodghill; front - Randi Shackelford, Jessica Youngblood, Kira Willhelm, Jennifer Garcia, Whitney Abila, and Alexys Dodd

