STUDENT COUNCIL

Help Everyone Reach Others

Alexys Dodd
President

Student council has taught me many good traits, especially responsibility, and I've had fun getting to know my fellow officers.

Justin Cole
Vice President

The event I'm proudest of is the 'Winter Olympics' activity. Students interacted in a fun way and got better acquainted.

Hendra Kerley
Recording Secretary

Even though being an officer is time consuming, I've benefitted by the discipline I've had to maintain to get the job done.

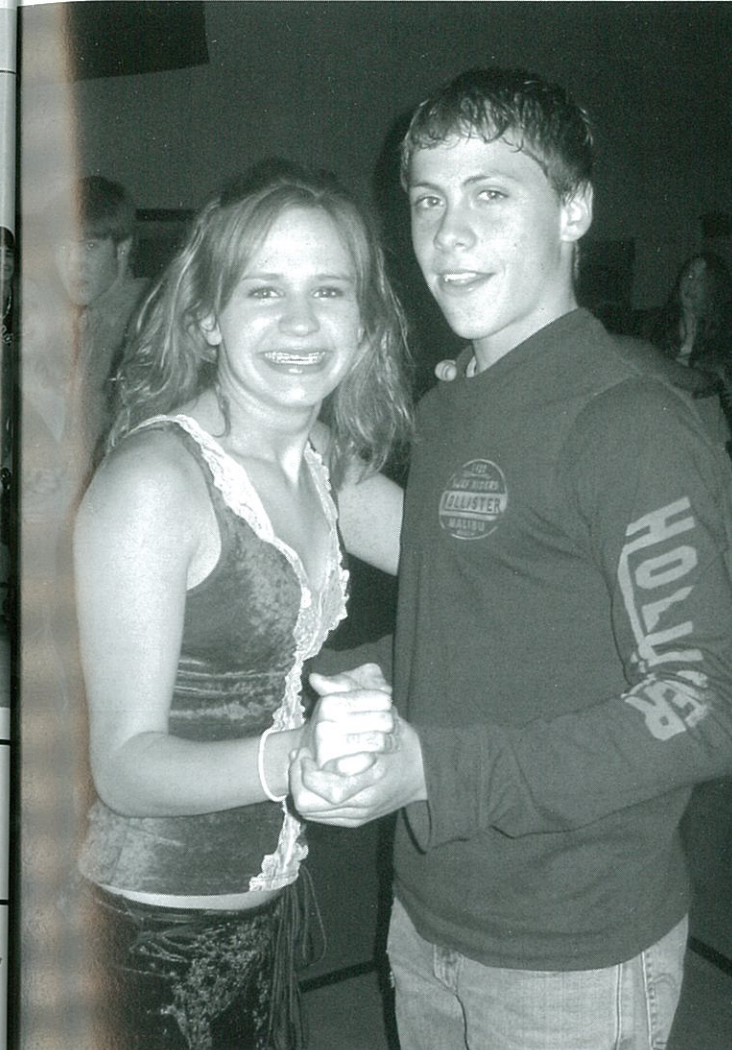

Erin Whitmire
Corresponding Secretary

I enjoy being part of this group of officers and Stuco gives me a sense of responsibility that I know I will need in a future job.

Kristen Boggess
Treasurer

Serving as treasurer has taught me a great deal about managing money. I think the council is an important part of WHS.

Qualifying members of the student council are ready to load into the charter for their trip to the District Convention in Odessa.

Mrs. Shelley Shackelford counts the rotations made by students in the basketball passing contest during the Winter Olympics which were held to celebrate the successful end of the first semester.

StuCo member Cody Lee Rushing participates in one of the games of the Winter Olympics directed by Coach Craig Sommers. Ciro Ceron, Desi Rodriguez and Marissa Armendariz lend their support.

Council members participate in Spirit Days. Pictured are Bristen Creech, Erin Stodghill, Jenny Watson, Crista Mendoza, Trinity Walker, Sarah Jones and Kanda Hildebrand as The M&M Kids.
