

Track & Field

To the Xtreme

Senior Daniel Ray stood alone as the only boy to qualify for the Region I Track Meet in Leveland. Daniel advanced in the 300m hurdles, a race considered by many to be one of the toughest races in track. Competing against schools in the District 7 takes supreme effort, and advancing past area is not an easy task. But Daniel did not give up. Rather, he used this formidable task as fuel to kindle his determination. Excellence is expected in Wink athletics and Daniel's run to Regionals is no exception to this rule.

Junior Logan Tipping takes the baton and sprints to the finish line in the 800m relay.

Sophomore Skylar Harbin pushes himself with all he has left showing his Wildcat Pride.

2008 Track Team: back - Skylar Harbin, Trey Allgood, Jacob Jones, Tyler Thomas, Daniel Ray, Dalton Gray, Corey Lujan, Logan Tipping, Sawyer McGuire, and Chad Boggess; front - Adrian Galindo, Angel Mendoza, Tevin Kemp, Wade Rogers, Chris Pedraza, Tyler Abila, Mark Chaves, Kris Plunkett, Mason Beeler, Tyler Richardson, and Jace Hildebrand

Freshman Tyler Richardson clears a hurdle in the 100m hurdles.

Senior Corey Lujan displays precise form as he qualifies for area in long jump.