“ Freshman Kayla Wilhelm, sophomore Kris Plunkett and freshman Tyler Richardson practice their swings. The emergence of young golfers assure a strong golf program in the future. ”

Junior Travis Thomas warms up before the Wink Invitational. His two-round total of 189 at the regional tournament put him in third place among his Wildcat teammates.

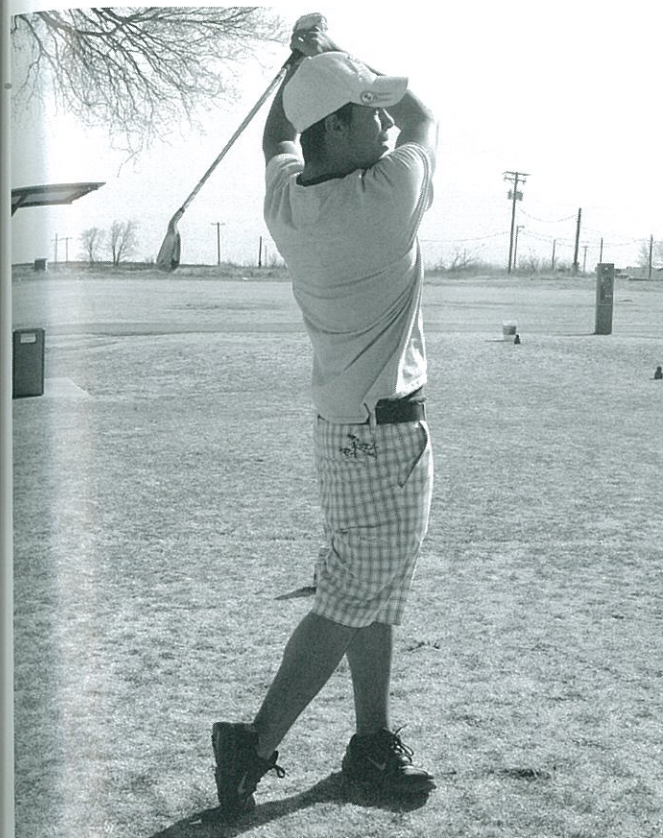

Dalton Gray shot a two-round 163 finishing 6th in the Region I medalist race.

Seniors Corey Lujan, Tyler Thomas and Dalton Gray led the way for the golf team to advance to the Region I Tournament in Lubbock where they finished in fourth place.

The Seniors' Final Round

Senior Corey Lujan finds time to practice golf during his hectic spring athletic schedule.

IT'S TIME

The 2008 season marked the first year for sophomore Shelbi Richardson to participate in the golf program. With only one returning member on the girls' team, the group gained experience and skill at each tournament.
