Lexie-
Well, we made it. This year was full of potholes and pitfalls, but your leadership as Editor really helped pull us through. I appreciate the hard work, time, and effort that you put into making this year's book memorable. You make a great right-hand woman! Love you bunches!!

Special thanks to the Beginning Journalism class: Kaylynn B., Aaron H., Mackenzie H., Rainey L., and Hugo M. Even though you weren't technically in charge of the yearbook, any time you saw that things were rough you never hesitated to pitch in and help. You have no idea how much that was appreciated!
