Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition.

I am very proud of the young woman you have become. May life meet you with a gentle hand, may God's blessings follow you through your life.

I love you, Dad

I promised I'd always love you from the day of your own birth. I promise I will love you more than anything on Earth. I promise I will hold your hands when you begin to walk. I promise I will wipe your tears at the times when you are sad. I promise I will love you still even if I'm mad. I promise I will do my best each and every day. The joy you give to me is strong but, there's one more thing to say. You are the apple of my eye. You are my little pearl. I'll always hold you in my heart. 'Cause you're Daddy's little girl.

BRIANNA CRAWFORD

Kaylee, every time I see this picture it reminds me of you. You could have been the model in this picture for you are just as perfect. You were born in our hearts and not of our bodies but you are such a perfect blend of us that there can be no doubt that you were made just for us. You are and always will be our very own special God given Angel Baby. We are so proud of you and the young woman you are becoming and we hope you will always know deep in your soul that it does not matter how many miles or how much time separates us just how very much you are wanted and loved.

Our love is yours always and forever,
Mom & Dad
