The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step.

Jessie Eaton

I hate to see you graduate but you deserve it because you've worked so hard to get where you're going. We love you very much and have enjoyed watching you grow into the young lady that you are. I know you'll go very far once you start your own life.

Go class of '15! Leave each other physically but stay together in mind!

Love,
Grandpa &
Grandma

Gia Garland

To my baby girl Gia, I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smile, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opprotunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known. It's been a joy watching you mature and transition into the young lady that you have become. I can't wait to see what God has in store for you!!

Love, Mom

I am so proud of the lady you have become!

These are only a few things that describe our daughter and there are so many more things we could say about her. But for those that have known her most of her life you could say that her integrity is strong and will be there when you least expect it.

Charry, you are loved more than you will ever know, not just by us but by those who know you.

We are proud of you & love you,
Mom and Dad
